

"AS STEWARDS OF THE MANY DIVERSE AND SIGNIFICANT TRIBUTARIES OF OUR GREAT ARCTIC OCEAN DRAINAGE BASIN, WE ACKNOWLEDGE WATER IS SACRED."

Keepers of the Athabasca

Proudly Presents our new

“Flowing into Right Relationship” Workshops

Since Truth comes before Reconciliation

The “Blanket Exercise”: an interactive exercise that educates participants regarding the history of Indigenous peoples in Canada.

United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples: workshop participants read for understanding & action

Truth and Reconciliation: visiting the 94 TRC Commission’s recommendations for Canadians, developing ideas on carrying these forward in our lives, families, and communities.

Exploring the Treaties: reviewing the appropriate Treaty for each workshop’s location, while inviting discussion on historic and modern perspectives on how this Treaty has been and could be upheld.

Indigenous Water Governance: exploring pre-contact water laws, agreements, and treaties, while asking the question;

“Can there be an Indigenous Water Governance model for Canada?”

Community Climate Action: surveying climate science and the Government of Alberta's new energy efficiency and solar programs. Sharing assessments for designing a solar installation, along with preparing, distributing, and evaluating requests for proposals. Keepers of the Athabasca will follow up and assist workshop participants to plan and contract your new solar installation in Northern Alberta.
